This Document Relates to
Havlish v. bin Laden,
03 Civ. 9848 (GBD) (FM)

AND NOW, upon consideration of the unopposed Plaintiffs' Motion to Permit Attachment and Execution Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1610(c), and the Exhibits thereto, it is hereby ORDERED and DECREED that:

(1) A reasonable period of time has elapsed following the entry of the Order of Judgment as to liability against the Iranian Defendants on December 22, 2011, the entry of the final Order and Judgment as to damages on October 12, 2012, and the giving of notice of such judgments to the Iranian Defendants by the Havlish Plaintiffs via diplomatic means on February 13, 2013, and May 22, 2013;

(2) The requirements of 28 U.S.C. 1610(c) have been satisfied; and,

(3) The Havlish Plaintiffs, now judgment creditors, are authorized to pursue attachment in aid of execution of the Order and Judgment issued on October 12, 2012, against the Iranian Defendants by any means permitted by law.

SO ORDERED.
